

The Museum of Modern Art

LECTURES ON ANSELM KIEFER HELD AT THE MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

In conjunction with the exhibition ANSELM KIEFER, The Museum of Modern Art presents two lectures focusing on the achievement of the renowned contemporary German artist. In works ranging from the intimate to the monumental, Kiefer has generated an iconography drawn from literary, cultural, religious, and historical sources. The lectures, which take place in the Roy and Niuta Titus Theater 1, focus on these complex references found in his work and discuss various approaches to interpretation. The schedule is as follows:

Tuesday, October 18, 8:30 p.m.

Reading Kiefer: What We See, What We know, What It Means

John Hallmark Neff

Director of the Art Program, First National Bank of Chicago

Tuesday, October 25, 8:30 p.m.

Anselm Kiefer: The Temptation of Myth and the Terror of History

Andreas Huysen

Chairman of the German Department, Columbia University

Tickets for each lecture are $8, members $7, students $5, and are available in advance at the Museum's lobby information desk.

On view from October 16, 1988, through January 4, 1989, ANSELM KIEFER has been made possible by major grants from the Ford Motor Company and the Lannan Foundation. The National Endowment for the Arts, the Federal Republic of Germany, and Lufthansa German Airlines have also provided generous support. An indemnity was received from the Federal Council on the Arts and the Humanities. The New York showing has been supported additionally by grants from The Bohen Foundation, the Ford Motor Company, Deutsche Bank, and The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Federal Republic of Germany.

No. 109

For further information, contact the Department of Public Information
212/708-9750.