ART FOR CORPORATIONS, the spring exhibition/sale presented by The Museum of Modern Art's Art Lending Service, will be on view in the sixth-floor Member's Penthouse through July 4, 1978. The exhibition consists of examples of new works suitable for the corporate environment without simply being office decoration, as well as duplicates of works presently in the collections of corporations that were clients of the Art Advisory Service.

The exhibition, containing approximately 50 works by 35 American and European artists, covers a broad range of styles and media. On view are works on paper by such notable artists as Jim Dine, David Hockney, Jasper Johns, Roy Lichtenstein, Henri Matisse, Robert Motherwell, Robert Rauschenberg, Larry Rivers and Frank Stella. Also included are photographs by Ansel Adams, William Eggleston, Lee Friedlander, Stephen Shore and Edward Weston. All works are for sale and range in price from just over $200 to $4,500.

The Art Lending Service is open every day, except Wednesdays, from 11:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and Sundays from 2:00 to 5:00 p.m.

The Art Lending Service, a project of the Museum's Junior Council, is a sales/rental gallery on the sixth floor, offering works in various media selected from galleries and independent artists. Works are for sale to both members and non-members; rental is a Museum membership privilege.
