FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

The first of a series of tea receptions was given yesterday (Thursday, December 14) by Trustees and members of the Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, in the members' penthouse. The hostesses were:

Mrs. W. Murray Crane, Chairman of Reception Committee
Mrs. LeRay Berdeau
Mrs. William T. Emmet
Mrs. Robert H. Fife,
Mrs. Bernard F. Gimbel
Mrs. Sherman P. Haight
Mrs. William Hale Harkness
Mrs. Hugh G. M. Kelleher
Mrs. Samuel Lewisohn
Mrs. Kenneth F. Simpson.

About two hundred were present and enjoyed a small, unique exhibition of the Museum's activities. Three of the masterpieces from the Museum's collection of modern paintings were shown, several pieces of sculpture were on view in the lounge and a graphic showing of the work of the educational project was given. In the private projection room guests were shown motion pictures from the collection of the Museum of Modern Art Film Library.
