FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MEMBERS OF UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES ADMITTED FREE OF CHARGE TO MUSEUM OF MODERN ART

The Museum of Modern Art, 11 West 53 Street, announces that from now on it will admit to its galleries and auditorium without charge all members of the United States armed forces. This is being done in response to the suggestion of the United Service Organization in its plans for the entertainment of service men on leave in New York City.

At present the Museum has on view the large exhibition of Britain At War, composed of paintings, photographs, cartoons, posters, camouflage models, and motion pictures. It is also showing in its galleries on the third and first floors paintings and sculptures from its Collection by noted American and European artists. Every weekday afternoon at four o'clock, Sunday afternoons at two and four, and every Wednesday evening at six-thirty and eight-thirty motion picture programs are shown in the Museum's auditorium.

Hours at the Museum are from 10 A.M. to 6 P.M. every day except Sunday, when the Museum is open from 12 Noon to 6 P.M., and on Wednesday, when the Museum is open from 10 A.M. to 10 P.M. Admission to the Museum is twenty-five cents, which includes admission also to the Museum's film programs in the auditorium. Admission to children (under 16) is ten cents. On July Fourth the Museum will be open from 12 Noon to 6 P.M.
