MUSEUM OF MODERN ART TO OPEN EXHIBITION OF NEW RUGS BY AMERICAN ARTISTS

On July 1 the Museum of Modern Art will open to the public an exhibition of New Rugs by American Artists. The rugs have been executed by V'Soske from designs made at the invitation of the Museum of Modern Art by the following ten artists:

Stuart Davis
John Ferren
A. E. Gallatin
Arshile Gorky
Charles Howard
E. McKnight Kauffer
Loren McIver MacIver
George L. K. Morris
I. Rice Pereira
Marguerite Zorach

The rugs vary in size from a small one three feet in diameter to large ones eight by ten feet. All the rugs will be for sale.

The exhibition of Wartime Housing, which the Museum opened April 22, will close June 21 to make way for the rug exhibition, which will be held in the galleries along the garden side of the Museum so that the color of the designs and the texture of the rugs may be seen by daylight.
